Heavy rains lash Mumbai, people in low lying areas evacuated

Mumbai, the financial capital of India, is staring at its worst deluge, the one that hit it in 2005, with heavy rains leaving many parts of the city inundated.

The downpour has hit flight schedules to and from Mumbai, leaving many stranded.

Flights were delayed by at least 15-20 minutes from India's second-busiest airport.

There were 5 go arounds and 2 diversions till

11:30 am. All major airlines have advised flyers to enquire before heading to the airport.
